Grid	Bug Fix	Grid showing misalignment , appears scrambled after new cell validation The display corruption is actually a symptom of a less obvious issue. As soon as you type a single character into the TemplateAddRow, the row changes from a TemplateAddRow to a regular AddRow. You can see this clearly because it transitions from the TemplateAddRowAppearance to the normal AddRow appearance (the row background changes from green to gray). The real problem here is that even though the row is no longer a TempalteAddRow, it's still using the TemplateAddRowSpacingBefore abd TemplateAddRowSpacingAfter. In fact, the row is actually resolving these properties correctly, but it's just not updating the display. So the bug is occurring before you tab out of the cell. The correct behavior here is that is that as soon as you type into the TemplateAddRow, the spacing should immediately be removed.

Schedule	Bug Fix	Incomplete date being displayed on a UltraTimelineView for Japanese culture The issue here is not specific to Japanese culture. Japanese culture is only relevant here because it uses a different ambient font: Yu Gothic UI, 9pt. This font is very unusual in that for certain characters and strings, the Bolded version of the font measures smaller (in width) than the regular version.
